Coach Lucious Davis

Lucious Davis returns to the Albany Panthers for his third season as a head coach and first in the Professional Indoor Football League and reigning 2011 League Champions. In his second season with the Panthers, Davis guided the team to win an elusive League Championship that he fell one game short of the previous year, the franchise's first year of existence.

In Davis' first two years as a head coach, he won more games in that period than any other coach in indoor football history. He posted an overall record of 22-6 (19-5 regular season and a 3-1 postseason) which included a league championship.

Davis brings over ten years of indoor football experience, with stops as the Defensive Coordinator/Assistant Head Coach for the South Georgia Wildcats. Davis was previously the Defensive Backs coach for the AFL Las Vegas Gladiators, Defensive Coordinator for af2 Tulsa Talons and Assistant Head Coach/Defensive Coordinator for the af2 Mahoning Valley Thunder.

"We are a team dedicated to character, integrity and capability and I will make sure our players live up to those standards," says Davis. "As a coach, I have faced many of these teams (PIFL) before and I think we have a real advantage here, not only do we have many of the best players in the league and we will come out surpassing expectations of the city, and the league."

Davis's dedication and leadership have turned the Panthers into a perennial powerhouse. The leader of one of the most dominating teams over the past two seasons, Davis guided the Panthers to two winning seasons and two playoff appearances and a championship in his first stint as head coach. He became the second head coach in the history of the SIFL to win coach of the year in his first year as head coach of a new franchise.
